Good practices

- The task of formulating the Mission, Vision and Value and the Child Education HOSEN WAY Project aimed at actualizing these was divided among various committees and all faculty and staff are involved. These initiatives are worthy of evaluation.
- With regard to practical educational and child-rearing training, the sort of meticulous training guidance possible only at a small college is conducted, and the permanently manned Practical Training Guidance Office is used by many students for all sorts of consultation and information gathering. These initiatives are worthy of evaluation.

Recommendations for improvement

- The college has not established the procedures for expulsion, suspension and warnings stipulated in Article 26, paragraph (5) of the Regulation for Enforcement of the School Education Act, and improvements are required such as making various regulations.
