Good practices

- Common rooms have been established and, while making the most of the special features and needs of each department, are used as a common space for meticulous learning guidance and life guidance as well as a place for the output of learning outcomes. This initiative is worthy of evaluation.
- In the academic year 2017 a course concentrating on leadership was established as common course across the whole university, and the fact that it promotes programs to encourage the participation of women in society is worthy of evaluation.
- Due to the introduction of a mentor system for newly employed administrative personnel, they are able to execute their duties without any anxiety, and those who serve as mentors are also endowed at an early stage with an awareness of human resource fostering. This initiative is achieving good effects and is worthy of evaluation.
- Under the leadership of the President, internal quality assurance is promoted on a university-wide and effective basis, linked in with the PDCA cycle of medium-term and annual plans, and the fact that development is being steadily attempted is worthy of high evaluation.
