Good practices

- Long-term internships consisting of 40 days of actual work are implemented as required courses for second year students, and the university uses them in effective career guidance for students. This initiative is worthy of high evaluation.

Recommendations for improvement

- With regard to the holding of the meetings of the Board of Directors and the Board of Councilors, since the explanation and discussion of the agenda are conducted in the presence of both directors and councilors, improvements are required to review management methods so that they are based on the roles of directors and councilors as stipulated in the articles of endowment.
- Improvements are required with regard to the manner in which the meetings of the Board of Directors and the Board of Councilors are held, and due to the fact that internal quality assurance cannot be described as functional, improvements are required.
