Good practices

- The college has established a Basic Policy for Supporting Students with Disabilities and faculty collaborate with the Campus Life Support Office in providing attentive support to students with disabilities and students requiring reasonable accommodations. These initiatives are worthy of high evaluation.
- As part of the college's independent FD (Faculty Development)/SD (Staff Development) activities, workshops with junior college-orientated themes and student FD/SD workshops are conducted annually. At the student FD/SD workshops in particular, detailed hearings of students' opinions are held. These initiatives are worthy of evaluation.
- With the aim of encouraging the acquisition of Grants-in-Aid for Scientific Research, grant recipients are given a bonus payment commensurate with the evaluation as a performance reward. This initiative is worthy of evaluation.
