Good practices

- The Language Center, NINJA (Navigating an Independent Non-stop Journey to Autonomy), and other academic departments collaborate in both in-class and extracurricular activities. They provide a variety of learning programs carefully tailored to meet the individual needs of students. These efforts are commendable for their significant contribution to student learning and meaningful interaction.
- Graduation Project II has been established as a mandatory course for the associate degree program and a key requirement for graduation. The strict application of graduation certification standards is a practice well-regarded for upholding academic integrity.
