Good practices

- The Student Council serves as the contact point for requests from the Student Association, considers and implements New Regulations on Students' Appearances, and responses are made through collaboration between faculty and staff regarding students' opinions. This initiative is worthy of evaluation.
- As an evaluation of diploma policy, each term the faculty-in-charge conduct individual interviews with students to check degree of attainment using a portfolio, and utilize the portfolios in learning guidance. This initiative is worthy of evaluation.
- In order to seek qualitative improvements to education, the university eagerly pursues Faculty Development (FD) including explanatory meetings for new faculty and other trainings, and class observations and sharing of information among faculty are lively. These initiatives are worthy of evaluation.
