Good practices

- It is commendable that, based on the founding principles of the university and pursuant to the Basic Policy on Education and Learning Management, each department collaborates with the Education and Learning Promotion Council in examining whether or not progress is being made in adapting to advances in academic fields and the changing needs of society.
- With regard to internships, it is commendable that the university, working closely with reputable local businesses and listening to the requests of students, has prepared an environment in which they can learn in a variety of ways in actual work situations.

Recommendations for improvement

- With regard to the alteration of the University Regulations, as the Chair of the Board of Directors is deciding upon them at their own discretion as matters requiring urgent implementation, there is a need for improvement so that the Board of Directors approves the establishment, revision and implementation of important regulations.
