Good practices

- Using the Nagoya Jiyu Gakuin Scholarship Fund as its financial source, students with exceptional academic achievements are provided with scholarships, in addition to which the Nagoya Jiyu Gakuin Emergency Scholarship System has been created, and the university is implementing its own study support for students who are in financial need. These initiatives are worthy of evaluation.

Recommendations for improvement

- Department of Children's Studies, School of Education, which has not reached its completion year, fills less than 50 percent of its total enrollment quotas [or total yearly admission capacity]. Accordingly, improvements are required.
- Regarding master's dissertations in the graduate schools, no evaluation standards have been set or made public to students as stipulated in the Standards for Establishment of Graduate Schools. Accordingly, improvements are required.
